Half day training for children's rights advocates on Equality and Human Rights law

by Rupinder Binning and Carolyne Willow

Children's Rights Alliance for England

With funding from the Equality and Human Rights Commission, the Children's Rights Alliance for England is delivering a half day training course on using Equality and Human Rights law to bring about positive change in children and young people's lives. By the end of the course participants will be familiar with the Equality Act 2010, Human Rights Act 1998, and the Convention on the Rights of the Child 1989, and their application to children and young people and the work of children's rights advocates.
